

AQA A Level Fine Art

“What I love about the creative process, and this may sound naive, but it is this idea that one day there is no idea, and no solution, but the next day there is an idea. I find that incredibly exciting and conceptually actually remarkable.” Jonathon Ive (Lead Designer at Apple and Arts graduate)

Subject Information

This specification directly supports progression to further and higher education and provides students with a rich platform to inspire a lifelong interest in art and design. It is a flexible specification, designed to enable students to focus on an area of personal interest.

Career Pathways

For Arts graduates there are a huge range of career pathways that you can follow. Many of the courses offered at arts universities are vocational which means that they are preparing you to go directly into a creative role in a specified sector of the industry. Arts University Bournemouth, your local arts university based in Wallisdown boasts a 93% employment rate after graduating. Many students receive multiple job offers during their degree shows.

The list of careers linked to the Arts is too long to include everything but some key areas are: Design (Fashion/ interior/Web/game), Architecture, Modelmaking for film, set/costume design and special effects make up, VFX design, illustration, animation, Textiles, photography, film making etc. For more information follow these links:
