

AQA A Level Business Studies

“Your work is going to fill a large part of your life, and the only way to be truly satisfied is to do what you believe is great work.” Steve Jobs, co-founder, Chairman and CEO of Apple Inc.

Subject Information

We study the interrelated nature of business using business models, theories and techniques to support analysis of contemporary business issues and situations. This course is designed to engage students with topics and issues that are relevant in today's society, through key contemporary developments such as digital technology, business ethics and globalisation topics.

Career Pathways

For business graduates there are many jobs you can do working in diverse areas such as commerce, finance, accountancy, marketing, HR and personnel management etc. If you are graduating with a degree in a business-related area, you will find a range of careers that are directly related to your qualification.

Many business studies courses cover a range of subjects, but there are others, such as marketing, which have a specific vocational emphasis, and this will also influence your career choice.

Course Content

Exam Papers	Exam Time	Total Marks
Each exam will be worth a third of the A-level. All three papers will draw on material from the whole course and will feature a range of question styles including multiple choice questions, short answer questions, essay questions, data response questions and case studies.	2 hours	100
	2 hours	100
	2 hours	100

Entry Requirements: General entry requirement

Complementary subjects: Maths, Politics and Economics

Excellence in thinking:

The British Chamber of Commerce Network has been helping British businesses to trade with the world for more than 150 years.

<https://www.britishchambers.org.uk>